keep your interest peaked. Example: A pub called Monkey Chews and our bartender we named Neil. Too many Pink Floyd/Led Zeppelin/Jimi Hendrix songs mixing together in his head is all we could think.... Anyway, it's common for bands such as Radiohead to pop into a pub, have a brew and play a set. Very cool... ➔

DINING

My top three choices are:

WAGAMAMA —

I have never described ramen as palate tingling or exquisite until Wagamama. Sensational, affordable meals in a unique seating environment. Noodles, shrimp, duck, curries, Tiger beer and the real reason to go back to London, chocolate fudge cake with wasabe white chocolate filling - well bloody done!

WAGAMAMA

FIFTEEN — The posh restaurant where Jamie Oliver trains 15 unemployed youths as chefs offers incredibly imaginative cuisine. If you can, splurge some pounds here. It's worth it. Fifteen Trattoria upstairs is a fun, less-formal Italian eatery. A great place to meet up. Last but certainly not least,

ANY PUB — you happen upon is sure to be a lot of fun. Pubs have great food, excellent music and enough atmosphere to
