

WILL NOW DIE FOR SOMETHING.

All he wanted to do was hop and eat flies. Then you had to cut him up and look at his spleen. Your guilt lingers like the smell of formaldehyde, but now there's a reason your little green buckly went to the lily pond in the sky.

MyRichUncle is a new type of education finance company. Unlike other lenders, we consider academic history, letting us see our students in ways banks can't. By rewarding students for their hard work, we make sure they get the lowest possible interest rate.

Cutting up a dead frog may still give you nightmares. But now it can help get you a better student loan.
