Syrians Torch Embassies Over Cancellures

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP) - Thousands of Syrians enraged by caricatures of Islam's revered prophet torched the Danish and Norwegian embassies in Damascus on Saturday - the most violent in days of furious protests by Muslims in Asia, Europe and the Middle East. In Gaza, Palestinians marched through the streets, storming European buildings and burning German and Danish flags. Protesters smashed the windows of the German cultural center and threw stones at the European Commission building, police said.

Teen Wanted in Gay Bar Rampage Is Caught

NORFOLK, Ark. (AP) - A police officer and a woman were shot to death Saturday in the minutes before authorities apprehended a teenager suspected of a rampage in a Massachusetts gay bar. A police officer from the northern Arkansas town of Gasaville was shot as he attempted to apprehend Jacob G. Roberts, according to state police spokesman Bill Sadler.

Unemployment Rate Drops to 4 1/2-Year Low
WASHINGTON (AP) - The nation's unemployment rate dropped to a 4 1/2-year low as businesses cranked up hiring in January, an encouraging sign that the economy started the year on the right foot...

Dow Ends Down 58, Nasdaq Ends Down 19

NEW YORK (AP) - Falling consumer confidence and a smaller-than-expected rise in new jobs sent stocks lower for a second session Friday, with downward warnings from Amazon.com Inc. saddling the technology sector. The major indexes each lost more than 1 percent this week...

Enron Trial Seen As Marathon, Not Sprint

HOUSTON (AP) - The first government witness in the fraud and conspiracy trial of two former Enron chiefs said Jeffrey Skilling gave misleading information to Wall Street analysts. But he stopped short of saying Skilling or Kenneth Lay explicitly ordered the tricks...
