

Beauty Might Be in the Eye of the Beholder But may we suggest....

Just because you're a busy student doesn't mean you can't look your best! Give us a few minutes of your time, and we'll tell you about some great products we tried out and loved! For the perfect daytime look, follow some of our foolproof makeup tips.

Start off by smelling great!

Using Philosophy's Bath and Shower gels will start your day off right. These hopelessly romantic fragrances will be sure to get your sweetie drooling all over you. Red Velvet Cake and Buttercream Frosting smell exactly like their titles and even have the recipe written on the container if you feel like getting creative in the kitchen later!

Next, smooth on a 2-in-1 moisturizing tint, like Benefit's You Rebel, to even out your skin tone. Accentuating your brow arches and the tops of cheekbones with Benefit's High Beam or Philosophy's Supernatural will bring out a natural, healthy glow! Finally, brush Benetint and gloss duo Pocket Pal over your lips and pucker up!

Hint: If you're really in a hurry, after using a 2-in-1 moisturizing tint, try Benefit's Rush Hour on eyes, cheeks and lips for a rosy finish that is sure to draw stares!

You can find these great products and more at Sephora, higher end department stores near you or online at philosophy.com and benefitcosmetics.com!

Genius Fashion Sets the Trend for Footwear

Genius Fashion has unveiled their new spring line and is taking the shoe industry to a whole new level. Made from imported Italian leather and suede, these hot and flashy shoes are sure to create a stir. Embossed with racing stripes and inspired by NASCAR, this footwear line is for the spirited and outgoing woman. Female fans everywhere are taking notice of this new fashion trend, so be sure you're not the last one to have these unique shoes.

Don't Let Acne Stand in the Way of Being Fabulous You can do something about it!

Acne is something that no one likes, but everyone has to deal with. We tested out three major acne kits and our results were great. Read on to find out which one will work best for you.

Proactiv Solution - Prescription grade medication, this three-step acne treatment is a fierce competitor. The tough acne fighting medication uses benzoyl peroxide and glycolic acid to combat zits and wins! $39.95 For daily oil control, try the five-step program $59.95

Nature's Gate - One of the first acne treatments to contain Oligopeptide-10, this three-step organic acne medication smells great and doesn't dry out your skin. Contains cleanser, toner and lotion, this great new product boasts never tested on animals and it works great! $29.99

Philosophy - This four step kit comes with a cleanser, blemish serum containing salicylic acid, hydrogen peroxide cream which helps kill nasty bacteria on the skin and a moisturizer to seal in the good stuff. Philosophy makes this kit for oily, acne prone skin. It's a serious product to do the job. $47.00

Benefit's Zaparella Line

While not a kit, the product uses salicylic acid to combat zits with shower scrub Blast! ($22) Whoosh! a foaming face wash ($22) Zap! a blemish blaster and Galactic Shield ($20), a dual healing and concealing pencil.

While we decided these products all worked great, they did so in different ways. We think you should try them out and choose for yourself!

