

Heather Graham

Exclusive Interview

By: Gabriel Jacobs

U met up with Heather Graham in Beverly Hills after the screening of her latest movie, Gray Matters. Read on as she shares with us her role in Gray Matters, her views on love, family and sexuality - not particularly in that order, and what she will be doing in the near future to expand her career. We can expect to see quite a bit of Heather in the next year, both on the big screen and behind the scenes.

U. Are you having a good time in L.A.?

HG: I live here actually. I've been spending a lot of time in New York, where I got a new place about 5 years ago. It's kind of weird...it's like I have two lives, two sets of friends. I stay in L.A. January through March, and the rest of the time in New York.

U. I'm going to start off being a little intrusive if you don't mind! For all of those hormone enraged college guys and women, have you ever kissed a girl before Gray Matters?

HG: How do I answer this question...(laughs) Hmm.. You know what, I've always thought that women are attractive....and OK fine...I've definitely tried it.

U. Did you like it?

HG: Yeah, it was fun! I mean I definitely like guys, but I definitely think women are sexy.

U. You and Bridget Moynahan, your girl-crush in the movie, had great chemistry. Can we expect to see more of you two together?

HG: There's a really major sex scene between us that was like full-on hardcore and x-rated. I don't know why they didn't put it in the movie!

(Editor's Note: She was joking and this didn't really happen!)

U. How would you say Gray, your character in Gray Matters, is like yourself in real life?

HG: Well I think I'm definitely indecisive, like when I go out, I can't decide what I want to eat. I drive everyone crazy....then I think I ordered the wrong thing, so I eat off everybody's plate! And I think I can identify with what the character is going through, about trying to figure out who she is. I've struggled with that in the past and I can definitely relate.

U. Your character in Gray Matters appears to be a raging alcoholic. Do you drink that much in real life?

HG: I'm actually not that big of a drinker, I don't know what happened to me. With Gray, its like - Here's the solution to your problems: alcohol! I wish I could drink more, I have a low tolerance and I'm really easy to get drunk. I get horrible hangovers, and sometimes I get depressed when I drink, so it's not worth it. I'm not good at it....I need to train harder!

U. What has been your favorite or most memorable role as an actress?

HG: Well I had a lot of fun on this movie and it was really fun to be in Boogie Nights at that time. You know, honestly, I've had the chance to work

"I think I can identify with what the character is going through, about trying to figure out who she is. I've struggled with that in the past and I can definitely relate."

© Leon / RD / Retna Ltd.